

Adventure stories

for boys and girls

Le secret des dragons

6 TITLES

An adventure story in six volumes by the award-winning author Dominique Demers. Lili receives a birthday gift from her favourite, often absent world-explorer, uncle: a large egg?! which hatches into a dragon!! Lili must protect and take care of this special animal. Her uncle has given her specific instructions. Lili gets her friend Leo to help her. All kinds of adventures: kidnappings, North Pole excursion, lost in a tropical forest and, oh, yes, their dragon can make himself invisible.

Format: 12,6 cm x 19.6 cm, between 206 and 228 pages
For ages 8+

Adventure stories for boys and girls

FRISSONS

15 TITLES in this ongoing series

Stories full of intrigue and suspense, everyday happenings that could be real but, are really strange. Mystery stories that will keep readers wondering and guessing to the end.

Format: 12.9 x 19.8 cm, all approximately 96 pages
For ages 9+

Adventure stories for boys and girls

7 TITLES in this ongoing series

Stories for those who like mysteries and urban legends : action-packed series that keep readers on edge wondering and wanting to know what happens next in these scary stories. Well-written by experienced writers, just right page-turners for teens. Most stories are reality-based, not horror or science-fiction.

Format: 14.6 x 21.6 cm, all between 295 and 320 pages
For ages 12+

Adventure stories for boys and girls

Les aventures d'Olivier et Magalie

7 TITLES in an ongoing series

Stories full of action and suspense.

Olivier and his sister Magalie often spend holidays at their lake house. They have become good friends with Alexandra who lives nearby with her scientist father. One story is of a mysterious creature in the swamp land, another is of a strange-looking unknown footprint found in the woods, then one of a monster in the lake. Olivier and Magalie always eventually solve the mysteries and the readers have fun following the intrigue and the adventures.

Format: 13 x 20 cm, between 96 and 112 pages

For ages 7 +

Adventure stories for boys and girls

Tristan

4 TITLES in an ongoing series

The stories of Tristan and his move to a new school. He's lonely and he feels intimidated. He doesn't know how to make new friends. He wants to join the soccer team and learns that the opposing parties are not always the ones on the other teams. In another story he and 2 new friends organize an expedition to a mysterious island where a strange fisherman lives. Intrigue and adventure.

Format:
13 cm x 20 cm
112 pages
For ages 7+

Superlecteurs

2 TITLES

(Super Readers) Mathilde Singer writes a fascinating fictional story of the world of children's book publishing. Through Guillaume, the 9-year-old narrator, she introduces the readers to the editors, authors, illustrators and publisher with all their particular talents and idiosyncrasies. AND, all the work that goes in to publishing books.

The second story concerns all kinds of challenges for Guillaume after he wins the tournament organized by a well-known popular bookstore in town and the prize is spending a whole day working as a bookseller.

Format: 13 cm x 20 cm, 160 pages, for ages 7+

Adventure stories for boys and girls

David

8 TITLES

The well-known and award-winning author, François Gravel, defines and zeroes in on childhood fears in these stories.

David, a totally endearing young hero, must overcome some childhood fears such as a scary dog, heights, thunderstorms, nightmares... and, well, he does overcome them in the end, with a little help.

Format: 11 cm x 17.5 cm, all stories 48 pages

For ages 6+

Arthur

6 TITLES

Arthur is a 7-yr.old boy who is brilliant at being a 7-yr.old boy. Children love the tales of his visits to Grandma's house by the lake, where he invariably gets into a bit of trouble. The stories are witty, full of understated humour and populated by quirky yet recognisable characters for children, all narrated by Arthur.

Format: 11 cm x 17.5 cm, all stories 48 pages

For ages 6+

English translations of all 6 titles are available.

L'école des gars

4 TITLES in an ongoing series

For the first time, Remi is looking forward to starting school this year. He is in a new kind of school. A school where problems of hyperactivity, lack of self-esteem, hypersensitivity, autism...are not considered bad behaviour, a school where the teachers adapt to the different students and their particular needs and ways. At first, it's a school for Boys but then, girls are admitted as well. Bestselling novels.

Format: 14.6 cm x 21.6 cm, all 208 to 224 pages
For ages 10+

NEW L'école des gars (for younger readers)

5 TITLES in an ongoing series

The first series of L'école des gars (grades 5 and 6) was so popular that the author is now also writing for younger readers. Younger students are admitted to this special school. The series is fast becoming just as popular as the earlier one. It's still not an ordinary school, the children attending are smart, but with special needs, they're mischievous, curious and begin to like school!

Format: 13 cm x 20 cm, 96 pages
For ages 7+

Adventure stories for boys and girls

Dans la classe de Madame Edith

5 TITLES

(In Mrs. Edith's Classroom) Each of the stories is about a different student in Mrs. Edith's Grade 2 class and always touches upon a particular social difficulty that can plague young children such as lack of self-confidence, bullying, scared of failure... Short stories to help readers reflect on their own behaviour and interactions with those around them.

Format: 13 cm x 20 cm, between 64 and 96 pages
For ages 6+

Léo

3 TITLES and more to come

In this new series of novels, Leo, 6 years old and his brother Emile, 8 years old are back having fun, building a tree house in one and then a snow igloo in another or going on a make-believe journey in the desert. The stories are full of humour and adventure which shall please young boys.

Format: 13 cm x 20 cm, all stories 64 pages
For ages 6+

Adventure stories for boys and girls

Léa et Léo - Les SUPERJUMEaux

3 TITLES

(Superheroes) An adventure series of science-fiction and fantasy. The Superheroes are twins Lea and Leo. They have inherited (or rather were injected with a serum invented by their well-known scientist grandmother) super powers that they use to do good for the environment and many ecological matters. Themes: Science, superheroes, brother-sister relationship, pollution, ecology, telepathy...

Format: 13 cm x 20 cm, 96 pages

For ages 8+

Fred Poulet

7 TITLES

Short novels, half-way between comic books and novels, these sort-of graphic novels are full of humour. Hilarious stories to initiate beginner readers to detective stories. Fred “chicken” Poulet writes these stories addressing himself directly to the reader. They are funny even zany. Philippe Germain’s illustrations go EXACTLY well with the stories.

Format: 15 cm x 20 cm, 48 pages

For ages 6+

Adventure stories for boys and girls

And many more novels, such as...

Beginner-readers

FOR CHINA, INDONESIA, MALAYSIA, PLEASE CONTACT :

Big Apple Agency
Vincent Lin
vincent-lin@bigapple1-taipei.com

FOR TURKEY, PLEASE CONTACT:

Akan Ajans Agency
Berrak Hadimli
berrakhadimli@akanajans.com

FOR ALL OTHER LANGUAGES AND COUNTRIES, PLEASE CONTACT :

Barbara Creary – International Rights
Dominique et compagnie / Editions Héritage Inc.
1101, avenue Victoria
Saint-Lambert (Québec) J4R 1P8
CANADA
barbara.creary@dominiqueetcompagnie.com

See all our books on our web site at www.dominiqueetcompagnie.com

Héritage jeunesse